A NEW U3A

At a meeting in May attended by over fifty people, it was agreed to establish a U3A - University of the Third Age, an organisation for those wanting to remain active/continue learning/ making new friends/being involved with others of a like mind after retirement or after raising a family.

An inaugural meeting of Chudleigh & District U3A will take place on Monday 9th July at 10am in the Chudfest marquee behind the church. Come and find out more about U3A. There will be information about the likely groups e.g. walking, photography, history, music, gardening, armchair travel, bridge, science and many others.

A BOLT FROM THE BLUE

Chudleigh Amateur Dramatic Society in David Tristram's play in the Woodway

Room Chudleigh TH 26th/27th/28th July - at 7.30pm

Edward Jones was just an ordinary man, doing ordinary things until the day before his 40th birthday. What happened next..... defied the fundamental laws of science.....

A poignant story, told with hilarity - and some adult language,

Tickets, £8, from 2nd July at Harveys +Chudleigh DIY. Only 50 seats available at each performance. CADS information - www.chudleighamdram.co.uk

LATER

CADAS

At our May talk, we heard that recreational development has resulted in Haldon becoming the second most visited South West tourist site, with c 500,000 visitors a year.

Our next talk is on 21st September when Andrew Butler will be talking about 'The Challenges facing British Farming'

EARLIER

GOODBYE MY FRIEND

'Goodbye My Friend' was the title of Chudleigh School's Year 6 production and three of our Trusham lads took part. It was a mixture of hilarious yet poignant sketches and songs in which the children reminisce about the years they have spent in primary school. There was a collection afterwards for Cancer Research, a charity chosen by the children. Well done David, Jacob and Jamie. You were brilliant.

THANK YOU JOHN

In June, John Hall took his last service in Trusham church. He spoke about his calling to ministry, from a quite different world of engineering. John has been a good friend of Trusham - not content with coming regularly to lead services, he has also supported other village activities. While wishing him well in his retirement, we hope to see him in Trusham often.

AND

POPPIES AND COMMEMORATION

You may have noticed troughs of poppies are now in flower along the wall in front of the war memorial. As part of the Memorial Mob initiative to encourage organisations, villages, individuals create a carpet of crimson from Lands End to John O'Groats to remember all those killed or wounded in WW1. The 'Ribbon of Poppies' idea has caught the imagination across continents - from the Orkneys to the Falklands, from California to Indonesia, Australia and New Zealand.

'All we wish to do is to create a living legacy to those who paid the ultimate sacrifice'

Joining with The British Legion Appeal 2018 in Chudleigh, Trusham Village and Church have jointly sponsored a certificate which commemorates the death of Sidney James Sampson, born in Trusham in 1897, living at Burgoynes in 1901 then Clifford Street in Chudleigh in 1911. He was killed in Mesopotamia, aged 18. The certificate may be seen in the Village Hall. Details of those whose names are on our Village War Memorial are in a special folder in the church, by the War Memorial at the entrance to the tower.
